

SPECIAL CONDITION OF CONTRACTS

i) The contractors should quote the rate in figures as well as in words, and amount tendered by them. The amount for each item should be worked out and the requisite totals given.

ii) All corrections shall be attested by the initials of the bidders with the seal of the firm. In case any discrepancy/difference is found on checking between rates quoted by the contractor in words and figures or in the amount worked out by him, the following procedure shall be followed :

a) When there is a difference between the rates in figures and in words, the rate which corresponds to the amounts worked out by the contractor, shall be taken as correct.

b) When the amount of any item is not worked out by the contractor or it does not correspond with the rate written either in figures or in words, then the rate quoted by the contractors in words shall be taken as correct.

c) When the rate quoted by the contractor in figures and in words tallies but the amount is not worked out correctly, rate quoted by the contractor shall be taken as correct and not the amount.

d) Amendments as mentioned above shall be based on the tender marked "Original" only.

iii) When a contractor signs a tender in an Indian language the tendered amount and the total amount tendered should also be written in the same language. In the case of illiterate contractors the rates or the amounts tendered should be attested by a witness.

iv) The acceptance of a tender will rest with the IACS, Kolkata which does not bind itself to accept the lowest tender, and reserves to itself the authority to reject any or all of the tenders received and to place order on one or more firms without the assignment of a reason. All tenders in which any of the prescribed conditions are not fulfilled or are incomplete in any respect are liable to be rejected.

v) The IACS reserves the right to accept the tender in full or in part and the bidder shall have no claim for revision of rates or other conditions if his tender is accepted in parts.

vi) Canvassing in connection with tenders is strictly prohibited and the tenders submitted by the contractors who resort to canvassing will be liable to rejection.

vii) All rates shall be quoted on the proper form of the tender alone viii) An unconditional rebate which may be offered during submission of tender will be accepted and shall be considered during evaluation of the tender bid. However, after opening of tender, rebate may be considered only from the lowest bidder.

ix) Special care should be taken to write the rates in figures as well as in words and the amounts in figures only, in such a way that interpolation is not possible. The total amount should be written both in figures and in words. In case of figures, the words 'Rs.' should be written before the figure of rupees and words 'P' after the decimal figures, e.g. Rs. 2.15 P. and in case of words, the word 'Rupees' should precede and the word 'Paise' should be written at the end, unless the rate is in whole rupees and followed by the words 'only' it should invariably be up to two decimal places. While quoting the rate in schedule of quantities, the word 'only' should be written closely following the amount and it should not be written in the next line.

x) The contractor shall give a list of his relatives working with the IACS (if any) along with their designations and addresses.

xi) No employee of the IACS is allowed to work as a contractor for a period of two years of his retirement from IACS service, without the previous permission of the IACS. This contract is liable to be cancelled if either the contractor or any of his employees is found at any time to be such a person who had not obtained the permission of the IACS as aforesaid before submission of the tender or engagement in the contractor's service

xii) The intending bidders who will participate in the tender are allowed to witness the tender opening by putting their signature on the prescribed tender opening register/bid opening minutes.
